Dear Gene:

I want to take this opportunity to acknowledge the frequent reports you have provided us during the past months, although the main point of this note is to tell you that in reviewing overseas tours of our people with Carl Duckett yesterday, your situation also was discussed. I merely want to make a matter of record that Carl advised you during your TDY this past fall that you would be permitted a third year rather than going along with a second tour interrupted by home leave.

I should guess that you were quite pleased at this opportunity to stay on for the third year because, in my view, this additional year is usually the most fruitful of all. At this point your contacts are well established and you have become sufficiently oriented to make the most of the preliminary "missionary work."

Correspondence to you is now in process regarding various matters you raised including the [redacted] visit. I would like to get this personal note off to you without delay. Please extend my regards to your colleagues there and, of course, our best wishes to your family.

Sincerely,

[redacted] 25X1A
